

ENGLISHENG 301

This is an approved subject for University Entrance

This course is for students who wish to develop good language and communication skills and an understanding of society and culture by engaging with a range of texts. The course is predominantly composed of external standards. Internal standards will be chosen from the table below. This course is suitable for those intending to go to University.

INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

Achievement/ Unit Standards	Number	Title	No of Credits
AS 3.1	90720	Produce an extended piece of writing in a selected style	4
AS 3.6	90725	Construct and deliver an oral presentation about a text studied	4
AS 3.7	90726	Complete independent research on a language or literature topic and present findings in written form.	4
US Level 3	8834	Investigate a theme across a range of selected texts (this could be offered in place of 3.7 or both can be done).	6

EXTERNAL ASSESSMENT

Achievement / Unit Standards	Number	Title	No of Credits
AS 3.2	90721	Respond critically to written text(s) studied (drama, novel, short story)	3
AS 3.3	90722	Respond critically to Shakespearean drama studied	3
AS 3.4	90723	Respond critically to oral or visual text studied (film)	3
AS 3.5	90724	Respond critically to unfamiliar prose and poetry texts	3

Total number of credits offered – a minimum of	24
---	-----------

There may be an opportunity to trial some standards from the new standards alignments.

Suggested pre-requisite	:	University Entrance literacy requirements (4 Level 2 Reading credits and 4 Level 2 writing credits). It is desirable to have studied a Shakespearean Drama.
Course costs/special equipment needed	:	Language manual approximately $2
Contact person	:	Mr D Cook