

HISTORY

HIS 301

This is an approved subject for University Entrance

This course is for students who are interested in the development of a sense of 'heritage' – that is, an understanding of the main forces that have shaped our society and its institutions.

The main context for this will be England 1558-1667. Two internal Achievement Standards 3.1 and 3.2 allow for independent research (within a given context) of the student's own choice. Students need to be able to write well and be willing to read widely for this course.
