

OUTDOOR PURSUITS

ODP 302

This is not an approved subject for University Entrance

This subject studies topics related to outdoor pursuits and the New Zealand environment. The course consists of topics including;

- Approaches to outdoor pursuits
- Outdoor management and environment issues
- Risk management
- Leadership issues and group dynamics
- Skills for safe outdoor pursuits practice
- Navigating in the outdoors
- Bushcraft/tramping and associated skills
- Rope skills and bouldering/rock craft
- Kayaking
- Mountain biking
- Other outdoor pursuits as time allows (Skiing / snowboarding)

The main qualification gained in this course is the KVC Certificate in Outdoor Pursuit, which reflects the degree of personal commitment, reliability, group support and participation in a range of outdoor pursuits. Not a credit course.

Suggested pre-requisite	:	None
Course costs/special equipment needed	:	$150 for the year to cover course and transport costs $70 for optional tramping trip $310 for optional ski trip
Contact person	:	Mr B Ingram