

History

LEVEL 1

Credits: 24 (12 internal; 12 external)

Leads onto: Level 2 History

History is a Social Science based subject. Through the study of various contexts, students will learn to think historically by considering concepts such as: causation, significance, multiple perspectives, sources and evidence, and historical relationships.

Contexts studied at Level 1 will include:

- Black Civil Rights in the USA
- NZ's search for identity in the 20th century
- The 1981 Springbok Tour
- Conflict in Ireland

Teacher Contact: Mr Downes/ Ms Wishart

History

LEVEL 2

Credits: 24 (12 internal; 12 external)

Leads onto: Level 3 History

History is a Social Science based subject. Through the study of various contexts, students will learn to think historically by considering concepts such as: causation, significance, multiple perspectives, sources and evidence, and historical relationships.

Contexts studied at Level 2 will include:

- The Russian Revolution
- Significant events in NZ in the 20th century
- World War 2 and its effects on NZ society
- The Vietnam war

Teacher Contact: Mr Downes/ Ms Wishart

History

LEVEL 3

Credits: 26 (10 internal; 16 external)

Leads onto: Tertiary study

History is a Social Science based subject. Through the study of various contexts, students will learn to think historically by considering concepts such as: causation, significance, multiple perspectives, sources and evidence, and historical relationships.

Contexts studied at Level 3 will include:

- Elizabeth 1's Religious Settlement
- Significant events in NZ in the 19th century
- Race Relations in 19th century NZ
- Charles 1 and the English civil war

Teacher Contact: Mr Downes